Disaster Preparedness Expo

The City of Fountain Valley is presenting the first Disaster Preparedness Expo on Friday, November 15, 2019 from 1:00pm to 4:00pm. This event will include our local Fire Department, Police Department, as well as Public Works, Finance, and Recreation & Community Services departments. Also attending will be several nonprofit organizations that have information about what to do to be prepared in a disaster, including: Ready OC, Alert OC, SCART, MemorialCare Orange Coast Medical Center, 211, National Weather Service, OC Fire Watch, American Red Cross, and many more outstanding organizations.

The Disaster Preparedness Expo is FREE of charge; come on by to get pertinent information relating to being prepared for a disaster.

For more information on this event, please call the City of Fountain Valley Fire Department, Jennifer Wein, Management Aide at 714-593-4400 Ext. 368. Or visit our website at www.fountainvalley.org.
